

Spotlight Theater is proud to announce the debut of our spring musical for 2008: the Tony Award-winning family favorite, Oliver! by Lionel Bart. This musical take on Charles Dickens' classic Oliver Twist enjoyed a long run in London's West End and on Broadway, was nominated for ten Tony Awards, winning three (for Scenic Design, Musical Direction and Lionel Bart's score) and is overflowing with great tunes ("Consider Yourself," "Food, Glorious Food," "As Long as He Needs Me," "Where is Love?," "I'd Do Anything," "You've Got to Pick a Pocket or Two," "Oom-Pah-Pah," and many more), not to mention plenty of laughs, drama and moments that touch the heart. Directed and choreographed by Taryn Herman (recent credits from her ten years of experience include choreographing Beverly Theatre Guild's Big, NightBlue Theatre's The Rocky Horror Show and You're a Good Man Charlie Brown (also directing the latter)), with musical director Jeff Gamlin, and featuring a cast with members from all over the Chicagoland area (from Chicago to Steger, and Joliet to Lansing), it's a big show with a big cast, a big set and a big helping of entertainment for your dollar. So help yourself to an enjoyable time for the whole family: come see Oliver! and "consider yourself" in for a treat!
